About the SAT Program

The SAT
Taking the SAT® is the best way to show colleges you have the skills and knowledge they want most. The SAT is focused on what you’re learning in high school and what you need to know to be successful in college.

Be Prepared
To make sure you do your best, you should take challenging courses in school, and practice for test day. The best preparation for the SAT is classroom learning. Working hard and taking on challenging coursework help you build the knowledge you need to be successful on the tests and ready for both college and career training programs.

Practice
The College Board’s test developers and the online learning experts at Khan Academy® worked together to bring you Official SAT Practice.

Don’t miss out on these practice tools:

- Personalized recommendations for practice on the skills you need to work on most
- Thousands of questions, reviewed and approved by the people who develop the SAT
- Video lessons that explain problems step by step
- Full-length practice tests

Visit satpractice.org for details.

Retesting
Research shows that students who take the SAT a second time usually improve their scores. Do your best to prepare, but if your first set of SAT scores aren’t what you hoped for, you can retest and try to raise your scores.

SAT Subject Tests
SAT Subject Tests™ are one-hour tests in English, history, mathematics, science, and languages. They give you an additional chance to showcase your strengths and interests.

Many colleges use the SAT Subject Tests for admission, course placement, and to advise students about course selection. Some colleges specify the SAT Subject Tests they require for admission or placement; others allow applicants to choose which tests to take. Depending on your score and the college’s policies, your SAT
Subject Test results may place you out of a beginner class or satisfy a basic requirement.

Throughout this booklet, references to “SAT” and “SAT Program” refer to the SAT or the SAT with Essay, as well as SAT Subject Tests, unless otherwise noted.

Who Can Take the SAT

You may take the SAT on any of 4–7 Saturday administrations if you’re taking the test for its intended purposes, including if you are:

- Applying to a college or university undergraduate program.
- Applying for scholarship, financial aid, or other programs that require a college admission test as part of their application process.

If you’re taking the SAT as part of a state- or district-funded test administration, you may take the test on the state- or district-designated administration date.

Those interested in taking the SAT for reasons other than its intended purposes may only test in administrations where the SAT form is disclosed after the test, including:

- The October, March, and May administrations in the U.S. and Canada
- The May administration internationally

If we have reason to believe you are not taking the SAT for its intended purposes, you may be transferred to an administration where the SAT form is disclosed after the test. In addition, the College Board reserves the right to investigate and cancel the SAT registration and/or scores of anyone suspected of attempting to steal and/or share test content.

Register by Mail

Registration Checklist

When registering for the SAT or SAT Subject Tests you’ll be asked for:

- Your full legal name as it appears on your photo ID, date of birth, sex, mailing address, and current grade level.
- Your high school code. Find it at collegeboard.org/sat-codes.
- An acceptable photo of yourself that looks like the photo on your ID and matches the way you look on test day. For more on photo ID requirements, see page 38.
- The test type, test date, and test center you’re choosing.
Acceptance of our terms and conditions.
Payment or a fee waiver.

When to Register by Mail

You need to register for the SAT by mail (also known as paper registration) if you are:

- Requesting opening of a new test center closer to home.
- Requesting Sunday testing for the first time. (Repeat Sunday test takers can register online or by phone. Phone registration is subject to an additional fee.)
- Paying by check or money order.
- Younger than 13 years old.
- Unable to upload a digital photo as part of the online registration process.
- Registering through an SAT International Representative.
- Registering in a country where online restrictions apply.

Details about these registration options and restrictions are provided later in this section.

How to Register by Mail

Deadlines

See the back cover of this booklet for the 2017-18 test dates and paper registration deadlines.

Domestic Test Takers: If you’re registering to test in the U.S. or U.S. territories, your registration must be postmarked by the deadline and received in time to be processed for the requested test date. If you miss the regular deadline, you may submit your registration up until the late registration deadline for an additional fee. If postmarked after the late deadline, your registration will be processed for the next available test date whenever possible.

International Test Takers: If you’re registering to test outside of the U.S. or U.S. territories, you must mail your registration in time for it to arrive by the regular registration deadline. If received after the deadline, your registration will be processed for the next available test date whenever possible. Register by the early registration deadline if you’re requesting that a test center be opened closer to your home or if you’re registering through an international SAT representative. For more details about taking the SAT outside of the U.S., visit sat.org/international.
Photo Requirements

To guard against impersonation, when you register for the SAT, whether online or by mail, you must provide an acceptable photo of yourself. Your photo will be added to your registration, will appear on your admission ticket, and will be required for admittance to the test center. Only students in the eighth grade and below at the time of testing are not required to provide photos during registration.

Learn more about how your personal information, including your photo, may be used on pages 54–55. If you have any concerns about the photo requirement, contact Customer Service at least 30 days prior to your intended test date. See the inside front cover for contact information.

You must include a recent photo with your paper registration form. This photo will become part of your admission ticket, and test center staff will compare it to your photo ID to ensure security on test day.

Choose a photo that:

- Shows only you—no other people are visible.
- Shows a head-and-shoulders view with your entire face, both eyes, and hair clearly visible (head covering worn for religious purposes is acceptable if your entire face and both eyes are visible).
- Is properly focused with a full-face view, clearly identifiable as you, and matches your appearance on test day. If your photo isn’t easily recognizable as you, test center staff will not admit you to the test center.

Photo Tips

- We recommend using a passport photo, which is most likely to meet requirements.
- You can use an existing digital photo, scan in a school picture or passport-type picture, or take a new picture with a digital camera or smartphone.
- Black-and-white photos are fine.
- Don’t choose a photo where your full face isn’t viewable or recognizable, including:
  - A photo that cuts off part or all of your head.
  - A photo showing you in profile or three-quarter view.
  - A photo taken too close up or from too far away.
  - A photo that’s too blurry or too light.
Unacceptable Photos
Here are some examples of what makes a photo unacceptable:

- One or both of your eyes aren’t visible or are blocked. (For example, you can’t wear sunglasses in your photo.)
- Multiple faces are shown in the photo.
- Your face isn’t visible or recognizable.
- You’re wearing a hat or head covering that isn’t worn for religious purposes.
- The photo has been tampered with or digitally altered.

If you’re registering by paper:

- Your printed photo must be at least 2 x 2 inches and no more than 2.5 x 3 inches. Do not use a laminated photo (like one on an ID card).
- Write your name, date of birth, and high school code on the back of the photo.
- Tape the photo over the barcode in Item 6 of the registration form. Use clear tape around all four edges of your photo.
- Do not use paper clips, staples, or glue.

If you’re registering by phone:

- The Customer Service representative will apply your previously supplied photo to your new registration.
- If you need to submit or update a photo, you must register online or by paper and include a new photo that meets the requirements noted above.

If you’re registering online:

- Go to sat.org/photo for more on how to upload your photo.

Request to Test on a Sunday

If your religious observance doesn’t allow you to test on Saturday and you can prove this with a letter from your cleric, you can request Sunday testing. The first time you request Sunday testing, you need to register by mail as follows:

- In Item 21 on the form, enter code 01000 as your first-choice test center. Leave the second-choice test center blank.
- Include a letter of explanation signed by your cleric on letterhead from your house of worship.
- If you’ve already registered to test on a Saturday and need to change to Sunday testing, contact Customer Service.

NOTE: Sunday testing is not available as an alternative to Saturday testing for anyone who would normally test on a Saturday.
You can register online or by phone for subsequent Sunday test dates without providing a new letter. When you register for Sunday testing by mail, however, you always need to include a cleric's letter.

Requesting a Test Center Closer to Your Home

If you live more than 75 miles (120 kilometers) from the closest test center, you can ask us to try to open a center closer to your home. You must register by mail to make this request. We’ll do our best to meet your needs, but there’s no guarantee that your request can be accommodated. This is not available for the August administration.

- In Item 21 on the form, enter code 02000 as your first-choice test center. Leave the second-choice test center blank.
- Include a letter describing your situation. (This is mandatory for every registration requesting testing closer to home.)
- Requests to open a new test center can’t be made after the regular registration deadline. International requests must be received by the early registration deadline.

International Registrations

Please note the following restrictions that may apply to your registration options if you’re testing outside the U.S. or U.S. territories.

- International test takers may only take the SAT in May if they’re testing for purposes other than those noted on page 5.
- Register by paper and send in time to be received by the early deadline if:
  - Registering through an SAT representative. Note: you can’t pay by credit card. See page 17.
  - Requesting to test closer to home (only available in November, December, and May).
- You cannot request Sunday testing or testing closer to home for testing in India or Pakistan.
- Waitlist status (see next section) is not permitted in Cameroon, Hong Kong, Korea, Macau, Nigeria, Singapore, Thailand, or Vietnam.

Go to sat.org/international for more information.

Waitlist Status for Late Registration

If you miss the last registration deadline, or if your paper registration has been returned unprocessed without enough time to resubmit it, you may be able to go online to request waitlist status. This status is available in most areas after the last registration deadline up until five days before test day. Test registration on test day at the test center is not available. Learn more about this online process under “Special Circumstances” at sat.org/register.
Making the Waitlist Request

- All normal registration requirements apply, including uploading an acceptable photo.
- Waitlist requests can only be made through your online account; you can’t request waitlist status by paper or by calling Customer Service. You must also be able to print your waitlist ticket; there isn’t time to mail it to you.
- You must provide electronic payment information at the time you request waitlist status. You’ll be charged any applicable registration fees, including the waitlist fee, only if you’re admitted to the test center on test day. (Your account may be temporarily charged $1 while your waitlist request is processed. This preauthorization charge will be removed within five business days after you submit your request.)
- Requests can only be made for one test center and for one test type (the SAT, SAT with Essay, or SAT Subject Tests) on any particular test administration date.

How Waitlist Status Works

- Asking for waitlist status doesn’t guarantee that you’ll be able to take the test on test day, but it’s your only option if you missed the late registration deadline. You cannot register for the test on test day at the test center.
- Waitlisted students are admitted to the test center on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Waitlisted students are seated after all regularly registered test takers have been admitted and if sufficient test materials, staff, and seating are available.
- If weather or some other unexpected condition closes your test center, your waitlist request will be canceled and you will be notified. You may be able to submit a new waitlist request for another center if there’s time.
- The test center supervisor decides who is admitted to the test center on test day. Those decisions are final.
- You must present an acceptable photo ID from the country where you’re testing.
- You must bring your printed waitlist ticket and any extra documentation of your testing situation (such as your Eligibility Approval Letter).

Restrictions on Waitlist Requests

- You cannot use a fee waiver to request waitlist status.
- You cannot request waitlist status for Language with Listening Subject Tests.
- You cannot ask for waitlist status if requesting Sunday testing for the first time.
- Waitlist status is not permitted for test takers age 21 or older.
- Waitlist registrants are not permitted to change their test type on test day, including opting in/out of the Essay.
- Waitlist status is not permitted in certain countries.

Completing the Paper Registration Form

This booklet comes with a blank registration form. Once you complete the form, place it along with your payment in the provided return envelope, which is already addressed to the SAT Program (you have to add postage).

- Be sure to complete all required items, which are shaded in red on the registration form and shaded in the table below. If you don’t complete the required items, your registration will be returned to you without being processed.
- Make sure that your name, sex, date of birth, and photo accurately represent the identifying information and photo on the ID you intend to use on test day.
- See pages 33–34 if registering to test with accommodations.
- If you need to change the name you registered under, your date of birth, or your sex on a registration once you’ve sent it in to be processed, you must contact Customer Service (see page 36).

Pay attention to the deadlines and required fees (see page 70 and the back cover of this booklet).

SAT Student Answer Verification Services

Use Item 23 to order SAT Student Answer Verification Services (these are not available for the SAT Subject Tests). These services can give test takers additional verification that their tests have been scored accurately.

Choose the service that’s available for your test date, and enter the fee for the service chosen in Item 26c.

Question-and-Answer Service (QAS)

QAS is a test-disclosure service that shows your test questions, your answers, the correct answers, and scoring instructions. You’ll also see the question designation (type or subscore relationship) and level of difficulty, and whether you answered correctly or incorrectly or omitted the answer for each test question.

- QAS is not offered for every test date. It’s available worldwide in May for Saturday, Sunday, and school-based testing dates.\(^1\) In October and March, it’s offered only for students testing in the United States and Canada on Saturdays in test centers.
- If you’re approved for accommodations that require testing in school, the QAS is generally available for the May administration only. Call the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) office at least two weeks in advance of test day to see if arrangements can be made for October or March test dates.
- QAS is not offered for makeup tests even if it was offered for the associated primary test.

Student Answer Service (SAS)

SAS gives you a list of question types, level of difficulty, and whether you answered correctly, answered incorrectly, or omitted the answer.

- SAS is available whenever QAS isn’t offered.
- SAS can be ordered for makeup tests.

Important Information About QAS and SAS

To pay for QAS or SAS with a fee waiver, you must request the service on your registration form in Item 23.

- Orders cannot be returned or canceled.
- QAS and SAS are not available for scores that have been hand-score verified. Visit sat.org/verify-scores for more information.
- If a problem prevents us from delivering your QAS or SAS, you’ll get a refund. QAS and SAS are only offered as scheduled.

\(^1\) School-based testing dates are provided for students testing with accommodations that aren’t offered in centers.
Late Registration Fee
Registrations must be postmarked by the regular registration deadline to avoid late fees. If you're mailing the registration form after the regular registration deadline, you must include the late fee (in Item 26d) or pay with a fee waiver; otherwise your registration will be returned to you unprocessed. The late registration period applies only to domestic registrations—international registrations that arrive after the regular registration deadline will be processed for the next available test date, when possible.

If registering online or by phone, check sat.org/register for late registration deadlines that apply.

International Fees
If testing outside the U.S., enter the total from Item 25 in the appropriate boxes. If testing in Canada, add international taxes in Item 26e as well:

- GST/HST 13141-4468RT (students in Canada)
- QST on GST (students in Quebec, Canada)

Acceptable Forms of Payment
Once you have added up all the figures in Item 26 and entered the sum in the TOTAL field, choose from the following forms of payment to pay for your registration.

- Credit card: You must fill in Item 24 for credit card payments using one of the cards listed on the form. Credit cards are not accepted for some international registrations. See page 9 or go to sat.org/international to view a list of registration restrictions.
- Check or money order payable to The College Board: You can use a bank draft or international money order. Checks must be drawn on a U.S. bank.
- PayPal: In most cases, PayPal can be accepted as an electronic payment for transactions associated with registration, but you need to register online to use it.
- Fee waiver: You must enclose your completed, signed card. All fields on the fee-waiver card must be completed or your registration will be returned unprocessed. See more information on the next page.
- UNESCO coupons.

Do not send cash. Registrations received with cash or checks drawn on non-U.S. banks or forms of payment not listed above will be returned unprocessed.

For registration and testing fees and refund policies, see pages 70–71.
Check Processing

Our receipt of your payment check is your authorization for us to collect the amount of the check electronically by sending the check amount along with the check, routing, and transit account numbers to your bank. Your bank account may be debited as early as the same day we receive your payment. The original check will be destroyed and an image will be maintained in our records. We reserve the right to electronically collect your eligible payment checks, at first presentment and any representation, from the bank account the check was drawn on. Checks returned to the College Board for insufficient funds will be represented electronically, and your account will be debited for the amount of the check plus the state-allowed fee.

Fee Waivers

SAT fee waivers are available to low-income students in the U.S. or U.S. territories. U.S. citizens living outside the U.S. may be able to have test fees waived. For more information about eligibility, go to sat.org/feewaivers.

What Fee Waivers Cover

- The registration fee for up to two SAT or SAT with Essay administrations (for 11th and 12th graders)
- The registration fee for up to two SAT Subject Test administrations (for 9th–12th graders; take up to three individual SAT Subject Tests on a single test day)
- Question-and-Answer Service (QAS) or Student Answer Service (SAS) if ordered with your registration (QAS and SAS aren’t available for SAT Subject Tests)
- A fee reduction for multiple-choice score verification or essay score verification
- Coverage of the non-U.S. regional fee for fee-waiver-eligible U.S. students who are testing abroad

Fee-Waiver Benefits

- Fee waivers can be used to register for the tests at any time through the late registration period (not applicable to international registrations). This booklet lists the paper registration deadlines. Check sat.org/register for late registration deadlines that apply to online and phone registrations.
- Along with your four free registration score reports, you’re entitled to four additional score reports that you can use at any time before graduating from high school.
  - When you order reports online, you’ll see how many additional free score reports you have available.
You can also call Customer Service to find out how many free additional score reports you have left.

If you’re eligible for a fee waiver but didn’t register with one, request a fee waiver from your school counselor and use the fee-waiver code to order additional score reports.

- If you’re a senior who used a fee waiver to register or order score reports earlier in high school, the College Board will send four college application fee waivers directly to your online account during the fall of your senior year. Your counselor may have paper versions if you can’t access the online ones.

- You can receive up to eight CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE® fee waivers to use to apply online for nonfederal financial aid from colleges, universities, professional schools, and scholarship programs, for free. See student.collegeboard.org/css-financial-aid-profile for more information.

Important Notes About Fee Waivers

- Fee waivers cannot be used for requests for waitlist status.
- Once you use a fee waiver, it cannot be reused. If you miss the test you registered for, you can transfer your registration to a later date, but you will be charged the change fee.
- If registering by paper, you must complete all required fields on the form and the fee-waiver card and enclose the completed card for your fee waiver to be accepted as valid payment.

The College Board’s fee-waiver program is meant to help students for whom a test fee would be a barrier to college but doesn’t replace third-party initiatives (such as district- or state-funded SAT) where they’re available.

Registration Through an SAT Representative

SAT International Representatives, also known as international service providers, help test takers in their home countries. They can help you with:

- SAT registration
- In-language customer service
- Fee collection

If you register for the SAT through an SAT International Representative, you’ll need to register by paper. You must submit your registration to the representative by the early international deadline. SAT International Representatives have specific fee payment guidelines. Contact the representative for all information related to registration, deadlines, and payment. Only the representatives on pages 61–62 are authorized to accept registrations on behalf of the SAT Program. We will return registrations that are submitted through unauthorized agents.
Students Testing in Egypt:
If you’re registering through AMIDEAST/Egypt, it’s possible your scores may be shared with the Education Ministry. Please contact the representative for more information.

Restricted Registrations
As a United States–based corporation, the College Board, along with our representatives overseas, is subject to U.S. economic sanctions, laws, and regulations. We are therefore prohibited from providing testing services to or accepting registrations from persons in Iran or to persons designated by the U.S. government as Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (collectively, “Sanctioned Persons”), unless specifically licensed or otherwise authorized by the U.S. government. Payments submitted by or for such Sanctioned Persons may have to be placed in a blocked, interest-bearing account at a U.S. financial institution. If payment is not blocked under U.S. law, it may be returned to the registrant. If, however, a payment is blocked under U.S. law, the registrant may contact the U.S. Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). The list of countries contained in this section is subject to change. Contact SAT Customer Service (see inside front cover) to obtain the current list of restricted countries. Additional information regarding the U.S. government’s sanctions programs and contact information for OFAC is available at treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Programs/Pages/Programs.aspx.

The SAT Questionnaire

Why Answer the Questionnaire?
Item 14 on the inside of the paper registration form consists of 35 questions about you, your high school experiences, and your thoughts about college. While you don’t have to answer these questions, we strongly recommend that you do. Your responses give your school counselors and college admission officers information they can use to help you plan your future. The more information you provide, the more they can help you.

Your answers to some questions (the questionnaire identifies which ones) won’t appear on your score report but will be used by the College Board for research and planning.

Your responses, when combined with those of all other students taking the SAT, contribute to an understanding of the academic preparation, extra- and cocurricular involvement, and post-high-school plans of your graduating class, which can help colleges and universities deliver programs and opportunities to serve you and your classmates.
Connect to Colleges with Student Search Service

Completing the SAT Questionnaire and saying “yes” to Student Search Service helps you connect with colleges, universities, and scholarship programs that are looking for students like you. If you take the PSAT/NMSQT®, the SAT, SAT Subject Tests, or any AP® Exam, you can take advantage of this free service.

Here’s how it works:

During SAT or SAT Subject Tests registration, if you’re not already signed up, choose “yes” to be a part of Student Search Service. Your name and other information, including your address, high school grade point average, date of birth, grade level, high school, email address, intended college major, and extracurricular activities, will then be available to participating colleges and scholarship services. Please note that we never share disability status, self-reported parental income, Social Security numbers, phone numbers, or actual test scores.

Colleges and scholarship programs then use Student Search Service to help them find and recruit students who are a good match for their programs. This is a great way for you to get information about colleges you’re not familiar with. This service also makes it easy to take advantage of the scholarships offered by our new partners.

Important Notes About Student Search Service

- Being part of Student Search Service is voluntary. While most students who take the PSAT/NMSQT, AP Exams, SAT, or SAT Subject Tests participate in this service, you may take any of these tests even if you choose not to take part in Student Search Service.
- If you do not answer and have previously opted to participate in this service, we will continue providing your information. You can unsubscribe at any time by going to collegeboard.org/student-search-service or by calling Customer Service.
- Colleges participating in Student Search Service never receive student scores or phone numbers. Colleges can ask for names of students within certain score ranges, but your exact score is not reported.
- Being contacted by a college doesn’t mean you have been admitted. You must submit an application to be considered for admission.
- Student Search Service will share your contact information only with accredited colleges and approved educational or scholarship programs that are recruiting students like you. This information will be used for recruitment, scholarship opportunities, and college planning outreach.
These organizations must sign a license agreement, which outlines the specific terms the student information can be used for before it must be destroyed.

Under no circumstances are these organizations allowed to give student information to other organizations.

The College Board consistently monitors the use of student information by licensed organizations for compliance.

To preserve the integrity of the information contained in the Student Search Service database, the College Board reserves the right to bar or to remove, with or without notice, any student from the database.

Confidentiality
Institutions that receive your SAT scores and related data are required to maintain confidentiality of data and to adhere to College Board guidelines for using information. Your answers to Items 32 and 34 are not included on score reports to designated colleges but may be provided to your high school, school district, and state.

Updating Your Information
If you register for the SAT again, you don’t need to reenter all the questionnaire information. Be sure to update any responses that may have changed. When updating, answer the entire question—your new answer will replace the old one. For example, if you’ve taken calculus since the last time you registered for the SAT, you should list all math courses you’ve completed, including calculus.

You can update your SAT Questionnaire online or by calling Customer Service.

If one (or more) of the courses is an Advanced Placement Program® (AP), accelerated, or honors course, you should also fill in the oval in the “AP/Honors” column. Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD)

If you have a disability, such as a visual impairment or learning disability, you may need accommodations on SAT Program tests. The College Board considers all reasonable requests for accommodations needed by students with documented disabilities.

Examples of typical accommodations include:

- Extended time
- Computer use for essays
- Extra and extended breaks
- Reading and seeing accommodations

For more information on SSD, go to collegeboard.org/ssd.

Because test accommodations require specific materials, setup, and processing before test day, you need to apply for and get College Board approval well in advance of the test date you need the accommodations for.

Practice tests are available in all formats, including braille, MP3 audio, and assistive technology–compatible. Check sat.org/practice for electronic formats, or contact the SSD office to order practice materials in braille or other formats. (See the inside front cover.)

Applying for Accommodations

Most students get help from their school to submit a request for accommodations. Your school can request accommodations online at collegeboard.org/ssd. This is the fastest and most accurate way to request and manage accommodations for students who need them.

- If you choose to request accommodations without help from your school, you should complete a paper Student Eligibility Form, which you can get by contacting the SSD office.
- If requested through the SSD Online system or if you’re using a paper Student Eligibility Form, provide documentation of your disability and need for the requested accommodations.
- Submit the request as early as possible. The request process takes approximately seven weeks when documentation review is required. We recommend that you submit the form in the spring before your first College Board test (PSAT/NMSQT, AP, or SAT) of the following year. Go to collegeboard.org/ssd-calendar for specific deadlines for each test.
- Once approved for testing accommodations on College Board tests, you don’t need to apply for accommodations again if you take another College Board test unless your needs have changed.
However, if you move to a new school after you’ve been approved for accommodations, your new school will need to confirm your continued eligibility.

- Students approved for extended time for specific subject areas only (math, for example) will only receive those accommodations in the relevant sections or tests.

Always bring your SSD eligibility letter with you on test day to provide documentation if needed. Also, remember to include your SSD number every time you register.

Temporary Physical and Medical Conditions

If you have a temporary medical condition, such as a broken arm, you should transfer your registration to a later test date. If you’re a graduating senior and must report scores to meet a college application deadline, or if you’re taking an SAT Subject Test for a course you’re currently enrolled in, ask your school counselor to contact the College Board SSD office to see if temporary assistance can be provided. See collegeboard.org/students-with-disabilities/temporary-conditions for more detailed information.

Registering with Accommodations

The easiest and quickest way to register is online at sat.org/register. Be sure to enter your SSD number where requested. Students testing with accommodations are not required to register by paper.

If you register by mail:

- Include a copy of your SSD eligibility letter in the envelope with your SAT registration form. Check your admission ticket. If you’ve been approved for accommodations, they should be noted on the ticket. If they’re not, call the SSD office (see page 2) to ensure approved accommodations are added to your registration.
- If you’re approved for accommodations after you register check your SAT admission ticket to make sure it’s been updated, or contact the SSD office.
- If your accommodations haven’t been approved as the SAT registration deadline nears, register as a standard test taker and print your updated admission ticket after accommodations are approved.
- If your accommodations aren’t approved in time for your test date, you can:
  - Transfer to a later date (see next section).
  - Bring a copy of your SSD eligibility letter, along with your photo ID and admission ticket, to the center. If there are enough materials and space, you may be able to test with your approved accommodations.
Take the test without your approved accommodations. If you feel you didn’t do your best, you can cancel your scores immediately after the test (see page 47) or you can choose not to send your scores to colleges.

If you register by mail or phone without providing an email address, or if you request a paper ticket in Item 11 on the registration form, a paper ticket will be mailed to you. Call Customer Service if you haven’t received your ticket two weeks before the test date.

Online Tickets
If registering online, you receive an online version of your admission ticket that you must print and bring with you on test day. You can go back online to print the ticket at any time before your test. You’ll also be emailed a link to the printable ticket.

If you register by phone (with your photo already on file) or paper and provide your email address, you’ll be emailed a link to a printable admission ticket.

Online tickets are available to most students (unless under 13 years of age). If you registered by mail and don’t have an online account, you can create one at collegeboard.org.

Important Notes About Your Admission Ticket

- Your printed admission ticket is required for entry to the test center. Tickets on a smartphone are not allowed. If you don’t have your admission ticket, you won’t be allowed to test (and you won’t be entitled to a refund of any test fees). Test center staff aren’t required to hold a seat for you if you have to leave the center to get your admission ticket.

- Your name, address, date of birth, sex, and photo will be displayed on your admission ticket. The information on your ticket must exactly match the information on the photo ID that you will present on test day.
Test center supervisors will conduct a four-way match to validate your identity using your appearance, photo ID, admission or waitlist ticket, and roster (which can include photos). You will be denied entry to the test center if the information on your admission ticket doesn’t match your ID.

Don’t write anything on your admission ticket before or during the test.

Changes to Your Registration

Be sure to reprint your ticket if you make any changes to your registration information. If you can’t make the date you registered for, either change the date (for a fee) or cancel it. See page 71 to learn about our refund policies.

Changing Your Test Information

You can make changes to your test date, test center, and/or the type of test you’re taking. Check the date listed on your ticket under Registration Corrections to see if there’s still time to make these changes.

To change test information, use your online account or call Customer Service. You’ll need a form of electronic payment (credit card or, if making changes online, PayPal) for the change fee, plus possible additional fees for a different test type.

Selecting Different SAT Subject Tests

In most cases, if you registered for SAT Subject Tests, you can choose to take any SAT Subject Test offered on test day. You won’t be charged a change fee, but you will be billed later if you add any tests. Changing tests is only possible if required materials are available.

Language with Listening Tests require shipment of CDs, which means you can’t change them on test day. However:

- If you’re a student testing in the U.S., you can add or select a different Language with Listening Test by calling Customer Service no later than the date listed on the admission ticket under Registration Corrections.
- If you’re a student testing outside the U.S., you can’t make changes involving Language with Listening Test registrations after the regular registration deadline because of shipping schedules.

Adding or Dropping the SAT Essay

When you register for the SAT, you should consider carefully whether to choose the optional SAT Essay or not. It’s a good idea to check the policies of the institutions you’re interested in at sat.org/register to see if they require it for admission.

If you change your mind, you might be able to change from the SAT to SAT with Essay (or the reverse) on test day.
Changes to the Essay Option on Test Day:

- Must be requested at check-in. Students requesting a change will be seated after the other registered students, but before waitlist students, on a first-come, first-served basis, if materials and space allow.
- Are not guaranteed and will be made at the discretion of the test center staff at check-in. Changes may be declined by test center staff for various reasons, including lack of sufficient materials, staff, or seats to accommodate the change.
- Are not available to waitlist students or test takers 21 and over.
- May not be permitted in certain test centers—see sat.org/international for details.
- Are not available for School Day administrations.

You won’t be charged a change fee. You’ll be automatically refunded or billed for the difference between your registration choice and the test you take on test day. We’ll process the refund/charge using the payment method you used when you registered. Fee waivers cover any changes to the essay option.

The SAT is administered in a different room from the SAT with Essay. Once you’re in the essay room, it’s too late to change. If you try to change rooms after check-in you’ll be dismissed from the center and your scores will be canceled.

If you’re seated in an essay room and decide not to write the essay, your official score report will include an SAT Essay score of zero. Also, if you leave the room before testing ends, your scores will be canceled.

Changes to Photo or Other Personal Information

If you’re concerned that the photo you supplied doesn’t meet the requirements, you can go online up to five calendar days before the published test date to upload a new photo. You must use or create a College Board online account for this purpose.

You may make updates to your personal information (name, date of birth, or sex) after registering by contacting Customer Service no later than the Monday five days prior to the published test date, by 8 p.m. ET. No changes may be made after that time.

Updating Your Contact or Score Report Information

You can make changes to your contact and score report information for free through your online account or by calling Customer Service. The following changes can be made even after your test date, as long as you make the changes by the date printed on your admission ticket under Score Report Recipients:
- Mailing address, phone number, or email address.
- Score recipients already selected as part of your registration.
- Four score reports are free if ordered by the date on your ticket; you may add additional recipients for a fee (listed on page 70 of this booklet and on the registration form).

Changing Your High School Code
You can correct your high school code at no extra charge, but you must make the correction by the date listed on your ticket under Registration Corrections.

Test Day Policies and Requirements

Test Security and Fairness Policies
The College Board’s Test Security and Fairness policies are designed to give every student a fair and equitable opportunity to demonstrate college readiness. They’re also designed to prevent anyone from gaining an unfair advantage on SAT tests.

Please read this section carefully. When you register to take the SAT or SAT Subject Tests, you acknowledge that you have read, understand, and will comply with our test day policies and requirements, as detailed here. See sat.org/test-day to learn more.

- You must present acceptable photo ID for admission to the test center.
- Allowing someone to impersonate you to take a College Board test, or engaging in impersonation to take a test for someone else, is strictly prohibited.
- Sharing test questions or answers is prohibited at any time unless test content is released as part of a College Board service (such as the Question-and-Answer Service).
- Using phones and certain other electronic devices is prohibited in SAT test centers.
- You are prohibited from accessing secured test materials at any time before or after the test.
- If you exit the building before testing ends, your scores will be canceled.
- While you’re taking the test, do not allow anyone to see the test questions or your answers.
The timing of each test section is strictly scheduled. You cannot skip ahead or go back to a previous test or test section in the test book or answer sheet while taking the SAT or SAT Subject Tests.

- If your essay does not reflect your original and individual work, your entire test score may be canceled.
- You may not consult textbooks, other people, electronic devices, or any other resources during the test or during breaks.
- Calculators may not be shared, and may only be on your desk during the parts of the SAT and SAT Subject Tests they’re approved for.

Violation of policies related to test security can result in denial of entry to or immediate dismissal from the test center, cancellation of your scores, or a limited or permanent ban from future test taking.

On Test Day
All test centers open at 7:45 a.m. and doors close at 8 a.m., unless otherwise noted on your admission ticket. You won’t be admitted after 8 a.m. If you’re late or absent on test day, you can reschedule for a fee.

We recommend rescheduling as opposed to reregistering—it costs less. See page 35 for more information about changing your registration.

Most test centers don’t have large waiting areas, so if you arrive earlier than 7:45 a.m., you might have to wait outside until testing staff is ready to open the center.

Identification (ID) Requirements and Policies
Your admission ticket isn’t enough to get you into the test center. You have to understand and follow the requirements in this booklet so you don’t get turned away. Remember, test center staff will compare the information on your admission ticket and your photo ID, as well as your appearance, with the test center roster to confirm your registration and identity. You can’t be admitted to the test center if the information doesn’t match (for example the use of a nickname on one item but your full name on another). The staff is not required to hold your seat if you didn’t bring acceptable ID. International students should check online at sat.org/international for additional requirements that might apply in their country. If you have questions about our ID Requirements and Policies, please contact Customer Service (see inside front cover) at least 30 days prior to your intended test date.
Acceptable Photo ID

Your ID must be a valid (unexpired) photo ID that's government issued or issued by the school you currently attend. Check that your ID and admission ticket photo meet the requirements ahead of every administration you participate in. Even if an ID or admission ticket photo got you into a test center before, they may not be acceptable at another time.

Forms of valid photo ID are:

- Government-issued driver's license or non-driver ID card.
- Official school-produced student ID card from the school you currently attend. School IDs from the prior school year are valid through December of the current academic year. For example, school IDs from 2016-17 can be used through December 31, 2017.
- Government-issued passport.
- Government-issued military or national ID card.
- SAT Student ID Form (see page 40).

ID documents must:

- Be an original document (not photocopied).
- Show your full name exactly as it appears on your admission ticket, including the order of the names.
- Show a recent recognizable photograph that clearly matches both your appearance on test day and the photo on your admission ticket.
- Be in good condition, with clearly legible English language text and a clearly visible photograph.
- If you’re in the eighth grade or below at the time of testing and are testing for Talent Search purposes, a valid Talent Search Identification Form is acceptable. In all other cases, you must present an acceptable photo ID.

Circumstances Affecting ID Requirements

When you register for the SAT or SAT Subject Tests under the circumstances specified below, there are additional requirements for what ID you can use on test day. In all of the cases below, only the listed form of ID will be accepted. There are no exceptions to these policies.

- If you’re in waitlist status, you must present an acceptable school- or government-issued photo ID that’s been issued in the country where you’re testing.
- If you’re 21 years of age or older, you must present a government-issued photo ID or your passport. Student ID cards are not valid for test takers 21 or older.
International students:
- If you’re testing in Ghana, India, Nepal, Nigeria, or Pakistan, you must present your passport.
- If you’re testing in Egypt, Korea, Thailand, or Vietnam, you must present your passport or a government-issued photo ID from the country where you’re testing. If you travel to another country to test, you must provide a passport as identification.

Unacceptable ID

The following documents will not be accepted as proper ID under any circumstances:
- Any document that does not meet the requirements just given
- Any document that is worn, torn, scuffed, scarred, or otherwise damaged
- Any document that appears tampered with or digitally altered
- Any document that bears a statement such as “not valid as identification”

Examples of unacceptable ID:
- Credit or debit card of any kind, even one with a photograph
- Birth certificate
- Social Security card
- Employee ID card
- Missing child (ChildFind) ID card
- Any temporary ID card

Using the SAT Student ID Form
- If you don’t have another form of acceptable ID, you may be able to use the SAT Student ID Form, available online at sat.org/test-day.

Items to Bring for Testing

What to Bring:
- Printed admission ticket, which is required for entry to the test center (see page 34)
- Acceptable photo ID (see page 39)
- Two No. 2 pencils with soft erasers
- An approved calculator for math sections/tests that permit them (see page 43)
- Acceptable battery-operated CD player with earphones for the Language with Listening Tests only—no power cords or boom boxes are permitted (see page 43)
Nice to Have:
- A watch (without an audible alarm or communication/recording capabilities; smartwatches must be stored under your desk during testing)
- A bag or backpack (which must be stored under the desk during testing)
- Snacks and drinks (which must be packed away during testing)
- Extra batteries and backup equipment

What Not to Bring
Leave prohibited items at home—they're not allowed in the testing room. Prohibited devices and other aids include, but are not limited to:

- Cell phones or smartphones
- Audio players (with the exception of CD players used for Language with Listening Tests only) or recorders
- Tablets, laptops, notebooks, or any other personal computing devices, including wearable technology
- Separate timers of any type
- Cameras or any other photographic equipment
- Smartwatches and any other devices that can be used to record, transmit, receive, or play back audio, photographic, text, or video content
- Protractors, compasses, rulers
- Highlighters, colored pens, colored pencils
- Pamphlets or papers of any kind
- Dictionaries or other books

Phones and Electronic Devices Policy
Devices that can be used to communicate test content or share answers are not allowed in the test center. You may not bring electronics of any kind with you on test day.

If, however, you forget to leave a device at home, you’ll be instructed to turn off all electronic devices during the test and even during breaks. Be sure to turn off your watch alarm, if you have one. Test centers are serious about security and quiet, so prohibited devices must be turned off and put under your desk. Better yet: Make it a point to leave them at home.

If your device makes noise or you are seen using it at any time, including during breaks, you may be dismissed immediately, your scores can be canceled, and the device may be confiscated and its contents inspected. The College Board is not responsible for loss of or damage to personal items, including electronic devices, while you’re in the test center.
The test administration staff is encouraged to collect and hold phones and other prohibited electronic devices during the test administration, including break periods, or to deny admission to anyone in possession of a prohibited electronic device.

Acceptable Equipment—Calculators and CD Players

You’re responsible for bringing the equipment needed for testing (with the exception of some equipment needed for approved accommodations); that is, an acceptable calculator for the SAT or SAT Subject Tests in Mathematics, and an acceptable CD player for Language with Listening Tests. If you can, you should bring backup equipment and extra batteries on test day in case your calculator or CD player malfunctions before or during the test.

Calculator and CD Player Rules

You can only use certain kinds of calculators or CD players as explained in this section. Here are the other rules to bear in mind:

- You can’t share your calculator or CD player.
- If you use your calculator or CD player to share or exchange information during the test, or to remove test questions or answers from the test room, you’ll be dismissed and your scores canceled.
- If you’re using a calculator with a large (characters one inch high or more) or raised display that might be visible to other test takers, the associate supervisor may move you to another seat.
- If the volume on your CD player disturbs other test takers, the associate supervisor may ask you to lower the volume or move to another seat.

Use of Calculators During the SAT and SAT Subject Tests

You’re permitted to use a calculator on the Math Test – Calculator portion of the SAT. Bring a calculator you’re comfortable using. See The SAT Student Guide and The SAT Subject Tests Student Guide for more information about recommended calculators.

You may only use a calculator on the Math Test – Calculator portion of the SAT and the Subject Tests in Mathematics. The only exception is if you’re approved by the College Board to use a four-function calculator on the Math Test – No Calculator portion as an accommodation. (Percent and square-root functions are permitted.)
Acceptable Calculators
Only battery-operated, handheld equipment can be used for testing. No power cords are allowed. A list of acceptable graphing calculators is given in the Student Guides and online at sat.org/calculator. Calculators permitted during testing include:

- Most graphing calculators
- All scientific calculators
- All four-function calculators (not recommended)

Unacceptable Calculators
You’re not allowed to use any of the following items as a calculator (unless approved as an accommodation):

- Laptops or other computers, tablets, cell phones, or smartphones.
- Models that can access the internet, have wireless, Bluetooth, cellular, audio/video recording and playing, camera, or any other smartphone-type feature.
- Models that have typewriter-like keypad, pen-input, or stylus.
- Models that use electrical outlets, make noise, or have a paper tape. In addition, the use of hardware peripherals such as a stylus with an approved calculator is not permitted. Some models with touch-screen capability are not permitted (e.g., Casio ClassPad).

Use of CD Players During the Language with Listening Tests
The CD player you bring to the test: must be handheld and battery-operated; no power cords are allowed. In addition, the CD player you use:

- Must be equipped with headphones
- Can’t have recording or duplicating capabilities
- Can’t be part of a boom box (they’re not permitted)

Taking the Tests
Use these guidelines as you take the seat in the test room.

- Plan ahead and bring equipment that’s in good working order. Test center staff won’t have extra batteries, calculators, CD players, or earphones.
- When marking answers in your test booklet:
  - Use a No. 2 pencil with a soft eraser. Do not use a pen or mechanical pencil. An essay written in pen won’t scan and will get a score of zero.
Make sure you fill in the entire circle darkly and completely.
Erase any changes you make as completely as possible.

- On the SAT, there's no penalty for guessing; you simply earn points for the questions you answer correctly. Try to give your best answer to every question—there's no advantage to leaving them blank.
- On the Subject Tests, you do lose partial points for incorrect answers, so only guess if you can eliminate some of the answers.
- Use a watch to time yourself—no separate timers or alarms are allowed, as they distract other test takers. Choose a watch that doesn't have advanced communication or recording features (these are not allowed in the testing room).
- Do not skip sections, and do not leave your answer sheet blank. Doing this could result in score cancellation and/or delays.
- We occasionally pretest new items to determine if they should be included in a future SAT test form. These items may appear in any of the test sections, and testing time will be extended by 20 minutes so test takers have time to answer them. These items will not be included in computing test takers' scores. Students must complete all sections of the test. If you leave before dismissal, your scores will be canceled.
- Store any snacks you bring out of sight in your backpack or a paper bag. You may only eat snacks during breaks.
- Keep your ID and admission ticket with you at all times, especially if you leave the testing room. You may be asked to show your ID or admission ticket at any time while in the test center. Do not write on the admission ticket.

What to Do if Your Equipment Fails
If your equipment malfunctions during the test, raise your hand and tell the associate supervisor. If you have backup equipment, ask the supervisor for permission to switch to it.

- If your calculator fails while you're taking the SAT, you can continue to test, or you can cancel your scores. You'll have to cancel your entire test score—you cannot cancel just the Math Test.
- If your calculator or CD player fails while you're taking an SAT Subject Test, you can cancel the score for just that one test as long as you notify the associate supervisor during the test. In all other cases, if you wish to cancel one test, you must cancel all tests you take during a single administration.
Communicating Problems on Test Day

If you encounter problems on test day, you need to communicate them to the SAT Program as soon as possible, but no later than 11:59 p.m. U.S. ET on the fourth business day after the test to ensure that your concern is reviewed and addressed before your scores are released. If you’re testing on a day other than a published weekend administration date, check with the supervisor for the deadline that applies to you.

CANCELING SCORES
Cancellations must be made in writing and will include scores on ALL tests you take on one date unless your equipment malfunctions on an SAT Subject Test.

Makeup Testing

During bad weather, natural disasters, power outages, or other unusual conditions, test centers may be closed. Check sat.org/test-center-closings for test center closings on Friday night and Saturday morning before you go to the test center. Information about makeup testing is posted as it’s available. If a makeup date has been confirmed, that information is included.

The following are policies for makeup testing:

- The availability of makeup testing and the conditions that make test takers eligible to take a makeup test are at the sole discretion of the College Board.
- You may only take tests that you registered to take on the original date. During check-in only, you may be able to change your SAT Essay option, if the supervisor can accommodate this request.
- Sunday testing is offered for religious reasons only, not for makeup testing.
- Access to scores from makeup administrations may be delayed by several weeks.
- The Question-and-Answer Service (QAS) is not offered for makeup tests, even if QAS was available for the original test date.

Reporting and Scores

Score reports will be automatically given to you and your high school and to the institutions you designate on the form.

- The colleges that you designate to receive score reports will have access to a copy of your essay if you took the SAT with Essay.
- Each time you take the SAT, SAT with Essay, or an SAT Subject Test, the scores are added to your College Board record. All of your scores are reported to your high school.
- You can order additional score reports. They’ll be sent to your designated colleges 1–3 weeks after the request is received.
- If you want to change where your scores are sent, you have until nine days after the published test date to alter your four free score reports at no charge. After that period, you’ll be charged the additional score report request fee for any added or changed report requests.
- Score Choice™ allows you to choose which scores you send. See page 48.

Online Score Report

On or about the score release date, you can sign in to view your scores easily at studentscores.collegeboard.org. (You can also get your report by phone from Customer Service for an additional fee.) Be sure to set up a free account to access your online score report, which will include detailed information about your scores, insights into your strengths and areas that need improvement, and how your scores compare to those of other students. You can also link to your Khan Academy account to get personalized study plans based on your results.

Mailed Score Report
If you register by paper and don’t have a personal online College Board account, your score report will be mailed to you. You can also request a paper report when you register online.

Sending Additional Score Reports After You Test
You can order score reports at any time after you test (see the back of this booklet for fees). The easiest way to order score reports is through your online account. If you need to order by mail, you or your school counselor can download and print an order form from sat.org/resources.

Scores
How to Cancel Scores
Cancellations must be received by 11:59 p.m. U.S. ET on the fourth business day following the test. If you’re testing on a day other than a published weekend administration date, check with the supervisor for the deadline that applies to you. Once we receive your request, your scores cannot be reinstated. Please note:

- You cannot cancel individual section scores of the SAT. If you want to cancel your entire SAT test score, you must contact us by the specified deadline.
- For SAT Subject Tests, if you erase all your answers, or if you request to cancel your scores, all your tests taken that day will be canceled (except in the case of equipment failure). Remember that Score Choice (see page 48) lets you choose which Subject Test scores to send.
- Your signature is required to cancel scores. You can cancel your scores by fax or overnight mail (see page 45).
- Email or phone requests cannot be accepted. You can download a Request to Cancel Test Scores form from sat.org/cancel-scores.
- If you cancel your scores, they’ll be removed from your record and won’t be sent to any colleges or programs you selected as score report recipients on your registration.
- Unless you cancel your scores, all scores will remain on your record, even if you decide not to send them to any colleges or programs. Your full score history is kept on file and specific scores can’t be deleted from your record. Canceling requests to have score reports sent is not the same as canceling your scores.
Delayed Scores
Scores can be delayed for various reasons; we’ll notify you if your scores are subject to any unusual delays. If your score report isn’t available online when expected, you should check back the following week. If you haven’t received your online report by two weeks after the score release date, or your mailed score report by six weeks after the score release date, contact Customer Service by phone or email. Score release dates can be found at sat.org/scores.

Score Choice
Score Choice is an option that lets you choose which scores you send to selected colleges for admission purposes and which scores you send to selected scholarship programs. Please note that different colleges and scholarship programs use SAT scores in different ways.

- College and scholarship program–specific SAT score-use practices referenced in Score Choice materials are based on information provided to us by each participating college or scholarship program.

- The description of a particular SAT score-use practice in the Score Choice materials might not include every aspect of how a college or scholarship program uses a student’s score for admission decisions; additionally, SAT score-use practices for a particular college or scholarship program may change periodically and may not be automatically updated in Score Choice. Therefore, we recommend that you check with the college or scholarship program you’re sending SAT scores to and confirm its SAT score-use practice.

- We’re not responsible for the accuracy of the information or the consequences of your decisions. Your high school will continue to have access to all of your scores.

Sending Scores to College and University Systems
The reports received by you, your high school, and colleges contain scores that have been converted to the College Board’s 200–800-point scale. Note that the SAT includes additional scores that offer insights into your skill levels. The College Board doesn’t use either your raw score or your reported scaled score by itself or in combination with any other information to predict your individual future academic performance at specific postsecondary institutions. However, the College Board does help individual colleges and universities use and interpret SAT and SAT Subject Test scores. Test scores are the property of the College Board.

In certain college and university systems, once you submit your score to one school, other schools in that system will also have access to your score. Please note, however, that if you’re applying to more than one school in a college or university system, it’s still important for you to send your SAT scores to each individual school. If you’re not sure whether the specific school you’re applying to is part of such a system, contact the school’s admission office.

Scholarships

Some of the scholarship programs in the SAT Code List may have restrictions or prerequisites for eligibility. State scholarship program participants may change at any time, and the list may not always reflect the most up-to-date information. Contact the colleges and scholarship programs that interest you for the most current information.

The College Board automatically reports scores to certain U.S. government and state scholarship programs, such as the Presidential Scholars Program, to be used as one source of information to recognize student achievement. The College Board automatically reports scores and identifying information (including email address) for Presidential Scholar consideration for test takers in all states, the District of Columbia, U.S. territories, and Puerto Rico, and for U.S. citizens abroad. The College Board provides your records for this purpose so you don’t have to use one of your free score reports.

Your SAT score will be reported automatically for consideration if your mailing address or high school is in one of the following states:

If you attend school or live in one of the states listed above, you can stop the automatic reporting of your test scores by writing to The College Board SAT Program, Attention: Confidentiality, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102 by no later than the 15th day after the test date.

For students who meet certain specific criteria (last name and score range), North Carolina State University may provide a scholarship regardless of your state of residence.

Releasing Your Scores to the New York State Scholarship Program: The New York State Scholarship Program requires that New York State students who wish to be considered for the Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarships and Regents Scholarships at Cornell University on the basis of their SAT scores take the SAT before November 1, 2017. The latest published SAT administration date that meets this deadline is October 7, 2017.

The New York State Standardized Testing Law requires that you specifically authorize the sending of all reports. Your SAT scores and other information from your record will be sent to the scholarship program if you authorize the release of your scores when you apply for a scholarship. To do that, you must answer “yes” and sign the score release statement in the scholarship application. There’s no fee when your report is sent to the New York State Scholarship Program.
Scholarship application forms are sent by the State Education Department to principals of all high schools in New York State in December or January. The College Board releases to the New York State Scholarship Program the names, addresses, and other identifying information of seniors who registered to take the SAT prior to November 1, 2017, who are New York State residents and applied for scholarship(s). This makes it possible to match student files so that scores for all students who authorized their release are sent to the New York State Scholarship Program. If you don’t want your name and address released for this purpose, notify The College Board SAT Program, NYS Scholarship Program, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102.

Keeping Scores on File
Your test scores, your responses to the SAT Questionnaire, and related personal information that you provide to the College Board become part of your student record and are kept indefinitely, unless you tested before entering the ninth grade. If you test in the eighth grade or before, your scores are removed from your file at the end of the school year when you tested. If you don’t want your scores removed, you must let us know before the end of August of the academic year you tested. (See “Special Circumstances” online at sat.org/register for the latest date to notify us.) Send a letter, signed by you and your parents, requesting that the College Board keep your scores. Please include your name, your identification information, registration number, and test date. Send to: The College Board SAT Program, Attention: Talent Search Scores, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102.

For requests to have a permanent College Board student record removed, you must call Customer Service or write to the College Board, Attention Customer Service. See the front of this booklet for the phone number and address.

Ordering Older Scores
Scores can be ordered for test takers who tested before 2005. Older scores must be ordered using the paper form available at sat.org/scores or by contacting Customer Service. We will charge an additional fee to cover the cost of looking up your scores, whether or not scores can be located. The College Board can’t guarantee that older scores can always be retrieved. The normal response time for score delivery may not apply.

Official score reports sent to colleges five or more years after a test date will include a message explaining that they may be less valid predictors of college academic performance than more recent scores would be. This message also notifies colleges that for SAT Subject Tests, the test taker's knowledge of the subject may change given additional study in the area, and scores may become less valid predictors within a shorter time period.
Missing Scores
If previous scores are missing from your score report, call Customer Service (see inside front cover) or write to: The College Board SAT Program, Attention: Unreported Scores, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102. Provide identification information, test dates, and previous score recipients you want updated reports sent to. Reports that can be located will be sent at no charge and included in future requests.

Verifying Your Scores
Score verification services include the Student Answer Services for the SAT, explained on page 16. You can request a more comprehensive multiple-choice hand-scored verification or essay score verification or both, up to five months after the test date, by printing and completing a Request for SAT Score Verification form, available online at sat.org/verify-scores. Read the information on the form carefully before deciding to request this service. There is a fee for this service. If you used a fee waiver to pay SAT registration fees, the score verification fee will be reduced.

Additional Policies and Procedures
The testing policies and other information in this guide apply to every SAT test administration listed on the back of this booklet except where, and to the extent that, you’re provided with different guidelines and rules issued by the College Board or Educational Testing Service (ETS).

- By registering for the SAT, you’re certifying that you are the person whose personal information is being provided for this registration and that the information you are supplying about yourself is accurate. If at the time of registration you give false or misleading information about yourself, such as name, address, date of birth, current grade level, expected graduation date, attending high school, or photo, such misrepresentation can result in a score validity investigation and cancellation of scores.

- If your school participates in a bulk registration process for the test, the College Board may receive your personal information, including first name, last name, sex, date of birth, and mailing address, from your school. This information will be kept secure and added to your permanent College Board record to be used for score-reporting purposes as well as the other purposes that are outlined in this guide and in registration materials. By taking the SAT test and signing the SAT answer sheet, you acknowledge that your school has supplied this information to the College Board and consent to the College Board retaining this information.
Creating multiple College Board student accounts, intentionally or inadvertently, is strictly prohibited and can result in an investigation and/or the merging of relevant records.

If you want to cancel your scores, you should do so immediately after the test. Your request must be received by the fourth business day after a test administration. Once you submit your request to cancel scores, your scores cannot be reinstated and are not reported to you or your designated institutions.

Only score reports from completed and scored tests are sent to your colleges and scholarship programs. Scores from future tests you registered for but haven’t yet completed are not included. You can send all your scores to an institution, or you can choose which scores to send an institution by test date for the SAT and by individual test taken for SAT Subject Tests. Score Choice is optional; if you decide not to use it when sending scores, the College Board will send all of your scores to the recipient institutions.

Each time you test, you can choose those colleges or scholarship programs you want to send your scores to. The first four are included with your test registration fee. If you’re undecided about where to send your scores, you can add or change your score recipients online. Corrections and additions to your score report recipients can be made online until nine days after the test. The four score-sending requests included with registration cannot be applied to past or future score-sending requests or registrations.

Most, but not all, scores will be reported online and available by phone several weeks after the test date. Your score report will be delivered to the high school, colleges, universities, and scholarship programs you indicated when you registered, and additional score report requests will be delivered a few weeks after the request is received. A paper copy of your score report can be requested at the time of registration.

SAT Program policies are subject to change at any time for test security or other reasons. The SAT Program will attempt to provide adequate prior notice, although circumstances may limit our ability to do so.

The College Board will not be responsible for personal property, including prohibited items, brought to the test center on test day that becomes lost, stolen, or damaged.

In certain rare cases when there is unexpected volume in a particular area, resulting in lack of test center space, the College Board reserves the right to move test takers to a different location or to a subsequent test administration.

In the event of a test security–related concern, public health threat, natural disaster, terrorist act, or other unexpected events or circumstances, the College Board may cancel testing for all.
or a particular group of test takers. When this occurs, the SAT Program will attempt to provide adequate prior notice, although circumstances may limit our ability to do so. Once determined, we will communicate test cancellations and, where feasible, alternative test dates for affected test takers.

- In order to ensure the integrity of the SAT Program, the College Board reserves the right to bar any individual or group of individuals from registering for and/or taking any College Board test.

- If the College Board becomes aware that you or someone else may be in imminent danger, including a determination based on the content of your essay, we reserve the right to contact the appropriate individuals or agencies, including your high school or law enforcement agencies. We might also provide the relevant essay or other content, along with any personal information, to those contacted.

- Except as otherwise indicated in this guide, the College Board, including its subcontractors, shall not be liable to test takers, schools, school districts, or anyone claiming by or through them for any damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages, which are caused by, arising from, or otherwise related to the failure of test administration personnel, the students or the school, or the test center to comply with the College Board's and its subcontractors' test security and test administration policies and procedures, whether or not the College Board has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

- The College Board or its designee may make use of video surveillance cameras at any or all test centers for the purpose of test security. These images, which may permit the College Board to identify specific individuals, may be collected, stored, reviewed, and used for the purposes of (1) identifying and/or investigating possible SAT test security incidents; (2) collecting evidence in connection with possible SAT test security incidents; and (3) enhancing SAT test security. These images are maintained following the test administration for so long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes specified. Thereafter the images are securely destroyed. The College Board will NOT use or disclose video surveillance information except as described above, as requested by law enforcement, and/or as reasonably necessary to protect the rights and property of the College Board or third parties.

- We occasionally pretest new items to determine if they should be included in a future SAT test form. These items may appear in any of the test sections, and testing time will be extended by 20 minutes so test takers have time to answer them. These items will not be included in computing test takers’ scores.
The College Board’s processes are designed to ensure that registration records are properly handled and processed, and that answer sheets are properly handled and scored. In the unlikely event of a problem with shipping or otherwise processing registration materials, answer sheets, or score reports, or with scoring the test, or score reporting, the College Board will correct the error, if possible, schedule a makeup test for impacted test takers, or provide a refund of the test fee. These are the sole remedies for test takers in relation to such issues. The College Board has sole discretion in determining whether to score lost answer sheets that are eventually recovered.

Privacy Policy—Use of Student Information

The College Board recognizes the importance of protecting your privacy. We’ve designed privacy principles that govern how we use your personal information. The College Board lets students choose what personal information they provide to us and how we may share it. See collegeboard.org/privacy-policy for complete data privacy information.

The College Board collects personal information only to administer tests and deliver educational opportunities to students.

The College Board lets students and families decide how much additional information they disclose, beyond the minimum information needed to connect students with college success, including registering for the SAT.

During the registration process, we ask students for: name, address, date of birth, sex, Social Security number or student ID, and address. We may also ask for phone numbers and email addresses, school name, grade level or expected graduation date, ethnicity, and a parent’s name, email address, and education level.

Sometimes, schools will give us students’ personal information to register the students for College Board tests. Schools may share students’ names, addresses, dates of birth, and gender, and in certain circumstances information about students to help the College Board determine if they qualify for fee waivers. Students provide any remaining personal information themselves.

We only share student information for educational purposes (or under court order). These purposes include:

- We report scores to students and their schools, districts, and states to help measure educational progress and support a student’s path to college.
- If students request it, we use information to send customized college planning information.
We use student information to provide SAT college application fee waivers for income-eligible students.

We share a limited amount of personal data with our partners—and only that data needed for the sole purpose of administering testing services, and producing and generating student score reports.

On our website, we use student information to customize and personalize the content users see, such as important reminders about SAT test dates and college-planning milestones.

We share deidentified student information with researchers to conduct statistical studies and analyses related to College Board programs and services that address critical issues in education and contribute to viable solutions.

In the case of an investigation involving validity of a student’s test scores, a photo of the student may be sent to institutions that received the scores. Any college granted access to the photo must certify that it has admitted the student.

Students’ use of Khan Academy practice resources will be governed by the Terms and Conditions on the Khan Academy website.

Telemarketing and Internet Scams
We sometimes get reports of phone scams when callers posing as employees of the College Board try to sell test-preparation products or request sensitive, personally identifying information, such as credit card and Social Security numbers. The College Board does not make unsolicited phone calls or send emails to students or families requesting this type of information. This type of activity, known as telemarketing fraud, is a crime.

Grounds for Score Cancellation
As the College Board test administrator, ETS has in place procedures that are designed to ensure that the SAT is fairly administered on test day. The College Board and ETS strive to report scores that accurately reflect the performance of every test taker. Accordingly, ETS standards and procedures for administering tests have two primary goals: give all test takers equivalent opportunities to demonstrate their abilities, and prevent any test taker from gaining an unfair advantage over others.

ETS reserves the right to dismiss test takers, decline to score any test, and/or cancel any test scores when, in its sole judgment, as applicable, a testing irregularity occurs; there is an apparent discrepancy in the test taker’s identification; a test taker is improperly admitted to the test center; a test taker engages in misconduct; based on a test taker’s testing history, the validity of the score is suspect; or the score is deemed invalid for another reason, including, but not limited to, discrepant handwriting, unusual answer patterns, or plagiarism. Pending investigations are kept confidential, but results of completed investigations may be communicated to intended score recipients, including if investigation indicates attempts to gain an unfair advantage through actions such as impersonation, use of prohibited items, or attempts to send/receive test content.

When, for any of these reasons, ETS cancels a test score that has already been reported, it notifies score recipients that the score was canceled, but it does not disclose the reason for cancellation unless authorized to do so by the test taker, there is suspected impersonation, in certain cases that affect a group of test takers, in certain cases where there is an attempt to gain an unfair advantage, or where required by law.

Testing Irregularities Testing irregularities refer to problems or irregular circumstances or events associated with the administration of a test. When they occur, they may affect an individual or groups of test takers. Such problems include, without limitation, administrative errors (e.g., improper timing, improper seating, accommodations not approved by the College Board, defective materials, and defective equipment), indication of possible preknowledge of secure test content, and other disruptions of test administrations (e.g., natural disasters and other emergencies).

When testing irregularities occur, ETS may cancel an administration or individual registrations, decline to score all or part of the test, or cancel the test score. ETS may do so whether or not the affected students caused the testing irregularities, benefited from them, or engaged in misconduct. ETS is solely responsible for determining whether testing irregularities have occurred, and its decisions are final. When it is appropriate to do so, ETS gives affected test takers the opportunity to take the test again as soon as possible, without charge. These remedies are the sole remedies available to test takers as a result of testing irregularities. Students and parents may not review scores from the affected administration before choosing the option of taking a makeup test. See page 46 for more information about makeup testing.

Identification Discrepancies When, in the judgment of ETS or test center staff, there is a discrepancy in a test taker’s identification or photograph on the admission ticket, or the photo does not meet our requirements, the test taker may be denied admission to or dismissed from the test center; in addition, ETS may decline to score the test, or immediately cancel the test score. If the photo on your admission ticket does not match your ID, you may not be admitted to the test center.

Misconduct When ETS or test center personnel find that there is misconduct in connection with a test, the test taker may be dismissed from the test center, or ETS may decline to score the test or may cancel the test score. Repeated infractions during the test may result in dismissal from the test center or score cancellation. Test takers whose scores are canceled due to misconduct will forfeit test and registration fees. Misconduct includes, but is not limited to:
Taking any test questions or essay topics from the testing room, including through memorization, giving them to anyone else, or discussing them with anyone else through any means, including, but not limited to, email, text messages, or the internet.

Obtaining improper access to the test, a part of the test, or information about the test, or to the test center.

Referring to, looking through, or working on any test, or test section in the test book or answer sheet, other than during the testing period for that test or test section.

Referring to, or looking through, any test or test section while leaving the answer sheet blank.

Attempting to give or receive assistance, including by copying. Discussion or sharing of test content during the test administration, during breaks or after the test, is prohibited. Communication with other test takers in any form is prohibited while testing is in session in the testing room.

Using any prohibited items such as, but not limited to, cell phones, smartphones, smartwatches, other oral or written communication devices or wearable technology, notes and reference books, etc., in connection with the test, including during breaks.

Sharing or other misuse of equipment, including using a calculator on a test or test section for which calculator use is not allowed.

Consuming food or drink in unauthorized areas.

Leaving the test room without permission.

Leaving the building at any time during the test administration, including during breaks.

Attempting in any manner to remove from the test room any part of a test book or any notes relating to the test.

Attempting to take the test for someone else or attempting to have someone else impersonate you to take the test.

Creating a disturbance or failing to follow instructions given by test center staff.

Failing to follow any of the test administration regulations contained in this registration booklet in other registration materials, or given by the test supervisor.

Testing History Based on a test taker’s history, ETS reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel scores without applying procedures normally afforded to students under the following Invalid Scores section.

Invalid Scores ETS may also cancel scores if it judges that there is substantial evidence that they are invalid for any other reason. Evidence of invalid scores may include, without limitation, plagiarism, discrepant handwriting, unusual answer patterns, text that is similar to that in other essays, paraphrasing of text from published sources, and essays that do not reflect the independent composition the test is seeking to measure.

Before canceling scores as noted under this Invalid Scores section, ETS notifies the test taker in writing about its concerns, gives the test taker an opportunity to submit information that addresses the concerns, considers any such information submitted and, if substantial evidence still exists that the scores are not valid, offers the test taker a choice of options. The options may include voluntary score cancellation or third-party review, a free retest under closely monitored conditions, or arbitration in accordance with ETS’s standard Arbitration Agreement. In addition, when ETS notifies the test taker about concerns, the test taker is sent a copy of the booklet Why and How Educational Testing Service Questions Test Scores, which explains this process in greater detail. (Any test taker may request a copy of this booklet at any time.) Notification of the concern may be made via email if an email address is available.

If at any time before, during, or after a review of questionable scores, ETS finds that misconduct has occurred in connection with a test, ETS may treat the matter under its misconduct procedures; in that event, the options available under this Invalid Scores section or the Testing Irregularities section, as applicable, will not be available, even if those options were previously offered.

The retest option is available only for tests administered in the United States, U.S. territories, and Canada. The arbitration option is available only for tests administered in the United States and U.S. territories.

Suspected Impersonation In cases where the College Board or ETS believes that someone other than the registered test taker took the test for the registered test taker, and in other cases where required or permitted by law, the College Board and ETS may refer the matter to law enforcement and inform the registered test taker’s parent(s), legal guardian(s), high school, and colleges and other institutions the registered test taker requested scores be sent to. The registered test taker specifically acknowledges, and agrees to, such disclosure.

Reporting Misconduct or Suspicious Behavior All SAT tests are administered under strict supervision and security measures. To report any suspected violation of our Test Security and Fairness policies, or any suspicion concerning the security of an SAT test administration, please contact the Office of Testing Integrity as soon as possible (see page 45). All information will be held strictly confidential unless it’s legally required to be disclosed.

Reporting Violations

In cases where we have found that you have gained or attempted to gain or share an unfair advantage on any College Board test, we reserve the right to share this information with your high school, any other score recipients, law enforcement, and any other government agencies in the U.S. or abroad.
Students Testing in California and New York State

The California Education Code requires that you be given certain information about the purposes of the tests, property rights of the test subject and test agency to the test scores, procedures for releasing score reports, and score interpretation.

Statistical information related to the use of test scores in predicting future grade point averages must be provided to test takers prior to the administration of the test or coinciding with the initial reporting of test scores. The New York State Standardized Testing Law requires that certain information about the purposes of the test, property rights of the test taker and test agency to the test scores, test fairness and equity, procedures for releasing score reports and for reviewing challenges about test questions, and score interpretation be given to test takers along with the registration form or score report.

The information for both California and New York State test takers is furnished in this booklet, and in the materials included with score reports. Complete descriptions of the content of the tests, along with information on test preparation and sample questions, are provided in the booklets The SAT Student Guide and The SAT Subject Tests Student Guide, which are available free of charge from school offices for students who plan to register for these tests.

See how to request SAT Student Answer Verification Services on page 16. In addition, students who took the SAT in California in December 2017 can review the test questions under secure conditions at the ETS Western Field Office in Concord, Calif., by calling 925-808-2000.

Predicting College Grades A primary purpose of the SAT is to determine how prepared students are to succeed, both in college and in career training programs. Because the SAT assesses the content that research shows matters most for college and career readiness, SAT scores provide meaningful information about a student’s likelihood of success in college. But the SAT should not be used as the sole source of information for high-stakes decisions.

A pilot predictive validity study was conducted in the fall semester of 2014 to give colleges and universities information about the relationship between the SAT and college grades. Under standardized conditions, 2,050 first-time, first-year students across 15 four-year institutions were administered a pilot form of the redesigned SAT. First-year college performance data—courses taken and grades in those courses—for those students provided by the institutions in June 2015 inform the relationship of the predictive validity of redesigned SAT scores. Results of this research indicate that SAT scores, in combination with a student’s high school GPA, predict freshman GPA more accurately than SAT scores or high school GPA alone. For the students in the study, the multiple correlation between both SAT scores and high school and freshman GPA is 0.58. The correlation between the Evidence-Based Reading and Writing section scores and freshman GPA is 0.51, and between the SAT Math section scores and freshman GPA is 0.49. For both sections (SAT Evidence-Based Reading and Writing and SAT Math) the correlation with freshman GPA is 0.53, while the correlation between high school GPA and freshman GPA is 0.48. The combination of SAT scores and high school GPA raised the correlation 0.05 over SAT scores alone, and 0.10 over high school GPA alone. All correlations are adjusted for restriction of range to account for enrolled students’ narrower band of scores as compared to the wider range of scores observed in an applicant pool.

The College Board is committed to maintaining and improving the high level of technical quality of the SAT as well as its rigorous validity research agenda. The results of ongoing research into the redesigned SAT will be released as they become available. Find out more at sat.org.

Procedures to Ensure Fairness and Equity All SAT Program test questions and editions of the tests are reviewed by external, independent educators throughout the United States. These reviews help ensure that wording and content are unambiguous and relevant and that the language used isn’t offensive to or inappropriate for any particular group of students based on race/ethnicity or gender. The test as a whole includes references to men and women, as well as to individuals from varied racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds. Questions that were statistically harder than expected for a particular group of students to answer correctly based on their performance on other items in the test are excluded from the tests.

Relationship of SAT Scores to Family Income The correlation of SAT scores and student-reported family income tends to be in the 0.20s–0.40s, which is consistent with general research findings on the relationship between educational measures and family income level. Although average SAT scores tend to be higher for students from higher-income families, students from every income level, as reported on the SAT Questionnaire, obtain the full range of SAT scores. Many students from low-income families do well on the test. For seniors who graduated in 2015, approximately one-third of the students with reported family income below $40,000 obtained scores at or above the national average.
