SAT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF STUDENTS-TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Introduction:

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms and Conditions" or "Agreement") set forth important rules and policies you must follow related to taking the SAT. Please read these carefully.

References to “SAT” refer to the SAT or the SAT with Essay, as well as SAT Subject Tests™, unless otherwise noted.

All disputes between you and College Board will be resolved through binding arbitration in accordance with section 11 of this Agreement.

Section 1. Certification

a) By taking the SAT, you certify and agree that (i) you have read, understand, and agree to be bound and abide by these Terms and Conditions, and (ii) the information you provide to your talent search organization is accurate, (iii) your SAT registration information will be sent by your talent organization to College Board and College Board will be sending your score to your talent search organization.

b) If you register for the SAT on behalf of another (for example, a parent of the test taker), these Terms and Conditions govern parents and the test taker (collectively, “you”).

Section 2. Photo Requirements for Registration for Weekend Testing

a) If you’re in the eighth grade or below you should not include a photo with your registration. However, you will need to have an acceptable photo ID to be admitted to the test center. See sat.org/id-requirements for examples of acceptable IDs. You can also present a Talent Search Program ID Form instead of a photo ID.

Section 3. Admission to the Test Center for Weekend Testing

a) You must bring an acceptable photo ID and your printed admission ticket to be admitted to the test center in accordance with sat.org/id-requirements.

b) Testing staff will compare the information on your admission ticket and your photo ID, as well as your appearance with the test center roster to confirm your registration and identity.

c) Identification and Other Discrepancies. In our sole discretion, when there’s a discrepancy related to your identification and photo on the admission ticket, or when the photo doesn’t meet our requirements, or when the information on your admission ticket and photo ID doesn’t match (for example, if your nickname is on one field but your full name is on another), you may be denied admission to or be dismissed from the test center; in addition, we may decline to score your test, or cancel your score.

Section 4. Required and Prohibited Items for Testing

a) You must bring the following items to the SAT in accordance with sat.org/test-day-checklist:

- Printed admission ticket, which is required for entry to the test center for weekend testing
- Acceptable photo ID
- Two No. 2 pencils that have erasers
- Acceptable calculator (as set forth below) for math sections/tests where they are allowed
- Acceptable battery-operated CD player with earphones for the Language with Listening Tests only—no power cords or portable stereos are permitted
- Earphones, only if you’re approved for assistive technology-compatible or MP3 audio accommodations
- Epinephrine auto-injector (e.g., Epi-Pen) in clear plastic bag if you need one

b) You may not bring prohibited items to the test. Prohibited items include but aren’t limited to:
- Mobile phones, smartwatches, fitness trackers, or other wearable technology (simple nondigital watches are acceptable)
- Audio players or recorders, tablets, laptops, notebooks, Bluetooth devices (e.g., wireless earbuds/headphones), or any other personal computing devices
- Separate timers of any type
- Cameras or any other photographic equipment
- Pens, highlighters, or mechanical or colored pencils
- Books or references of any kind except as approved as an English language learner support for school day administrations
- Compasses, rulers, protractors, or cutting devices
- Papers of any kind, including scratch paper
- Earplugs
- Unacceptable calculators that have computer-style (QWERTY) keyboards, use paper tape, make noise, or use a power cord
- Weapons or firearms

c) Acceptable Calculators. Only battery-operated, handheld equipment can be used for testing. No power cords are allowed. If you have a calculator with characters that are one inch or higher, or if your calculator has a raised display that might be visible to other test-takers, you will be seated at the discretion of the testing staff. All scientific calculators, which can perform complex mathematical functions but don’t have a graphing feature, are acceptable as long as they don’t have any prohibited features. For a list of acceptable calculators, see sat.org/calculator. No other calculators are permitted.

d) If you do not bring the required items, or if you bring prohibited items, you may be denied admission to or be dismissed from the test center; in addition, we may decline to score your test, or cancel your score.

Section 5. Prohibited Behaviors

a) You may not engage in the following prohibited behaviors set forth below and located at sat.org/test-security:

- Attempt to cheat or otherwise obtain an unfair advantage on the SAT
- Take or attempt to take any test questions or responses or essay topics or any notes from the testing room, including through memorization, give them to anyone else, or discuss them with anyone else through any means, including, but not limited to, email, text messages, or the internet
- At any time, improperly access the test center, the test (or any part of the test), an answer key, or any information about the test
- Refer to, look through, or work on a test section in the test book or answer sheet, other than during the testing period for that test or test section
- Refer to, or look through, any test or test section while leaving the answer sheet blank
- Attempt to give or receive assistance, including by copying or through the use of an answer key
- Discuss or share information about the test including questions, answers, identifying information about the version or form of a test, or any other information that might compromise the security of the test at any time (including before the test, during the test, during breaks, or after the test)
 Communicate with other test takers or other individuals in any form while testing is in session
 Allow anyone to see the test questions or your answers or attempt to see or copy others’ test questions or answers
 Consult notes, other people, electronic devices, textbooks, or any other resources during the test or during breaks
 Use or access any prohibited items including devices or aids such as, but not limited to, mobile phones, smartwatches, other oral or written communication devices or wearable technology, cameras, notes and reference books, etc., during or in connection with the test, including during breaks
 Fail to turn in or store away a mobile phone in accordance with the test center’s collection process
 Share a calculator with another person
 Use a calculator on a test or test section where they are not allowed
 Use a prohibited calculator
 Leave the testing room without permission and prior to the conclusion of all sections of the test
 Go to a locker or leave the building at any time during the test administration, including during breaks Deliberately attempt to and/or take the test for someone else or attempt to have someone else impersonate you to take the test
 Deliberately create fake or multiple College Board student accounts
 Submit an essay that does not reflect your original and individual work
 Provide false information to College Board Disturb others
 Consume food or drink in unauthorized areas
 Exhibit confrontational, threatening or unruly behavior
 Allow an alarm or a personal item to sound in the test room
 Fail to follow any of the test administration rules set forth in these Terms and Conditions or in other registration materials, or directions given by the testing staff, or rules of the test center.
 Violate the Intended Use Policy located at collegereadiness.collegeboard.org/sat/taking-the-test/test-security-fairness.

Section 6. Score Cancellation and Disciplinary Measures

a) Score Cancellation and Disciplinary Measures. In the event that College Board or Educational Testing Service (“ETS”) determine that your scores are invalid under section 6(b) below, or you have engaged in Misconduct under section 6(c) below, we may, in our sole discretion, take one or more of the following measures (“Measures”): deny you entry to a test administration, dismiss you from the test, decline to score your test, cancel your scores, ban you from taking future College Board assessments (including without limitation the Advanced Placement (“AP”) exams), and/or share information with others as set forth in 6(f) below. CAUTION! THE CONSEQUENCES OF CHEATING ON THE SAT ARE SEVERE.

b) Invalid Scores. We may cancel your scores and/or take any of the other Measures described above, if after following the procedures set forth in this section, we determine, in our sole discretion, that there is substantial evidence that your scores are invalid (“Invalid Scores”). Examples of evidence of Invalid Scores include, without limitation, discrepant handwriting, unusual answer patterns, similar essays, or other evidence that violations of these Terms and Conditions may have occurred. Before canceling your scores under this Invalid Scores section, we will notify you in writing (via email if an email address is available) and provide you with an opportunity to submit written information to us to help resolve our inquiry. If, after review of the information by College Board’s review panel determines, in its sole discretion, that your scores are invalid, we will offer you three options: voluntary score cancellation, a free retest under closely monitored conditions, or arbitration as set forth in the Arbitration of Disputes section in these Terms and Conditions. This process is referred to as the “Score Validity Process”. Additional information about the Score Validity Process is set forth in sat.org/test-security. The retest option is available only for tests administered in the United States, U.S. territories, and Canada. The arbitration option is available only for tests administered in the United States and U.S. Territories.

c) Misconduct. Notwithstanding section 6(b) above, if we determine, in our sole discretion, that there is overwhelming evidence that you violated these Terms and Conditions (“Misconduct”), the Score Validity Process will not apply and we may cancel your scores and/or take any of the Measures described above. An example of Misconduct might include overwhelming evidence that you used or attempted to use an answer key or mobile phone. Misconduct may be established in various ways including, without limitation, through observations during an administration, or by evidence discovered afterwards. If your scores are canceled due to Misconduct, you will forfeit test and registration fees.

d) Testing Irregularities. We may cancel your scores if we determine, in our sole discretion, that a Testing Irregularity occurred (“Testing Irregularities”). Examples of Testing Irregularities include problems or irregular circumstances, or events associated with the administration of a test; they may affect one test taker or groups of test takers. Such problems include, without limitation, administrative errors (e.g., improper timing, improper seating, improper admission to a test center, providing accommodations not approved by College Board, defective materials, and defective equipment), evidence of possible preknowledge of secure test content, and disruptions of test administrations caused by events such as natural disasters, epidemics, wars, riots, civil disturbances, or other emergencies. When Testing Irregularities occur, we may cancel an entire administration or individual registrations, decline to score all or part of the test, or cancel scores. We may do this regardless of whether you caused the Testing Irregularities, benefited from them, or violated these Terms and Conditions. We may, in our sole discretion, give you a refund or the opportunity to take the test again within a reasonable timeframe, and without charge. These are the sole remedies that may be available to you as a result of Testing Irregularities. You may not review scores from an affected administration before choosing the option of taking a makeup test.

e) Test Taker Reporting Misconduct or Suspicious Behavior. You may confidentially report any suspected violation of SAT Terms and Conditions, or any suspicion concerning the security of an SAT test administration, by immediately contacting the Office of Testing Integrity by phone at 609-406-5430 or 800-257-5123 (test day only), or by emailing us at testsecurity@info.collegeboard.org.

f) College Board Sharing Information with Third Parties. We may share the results of test security investigations (including without limitation those relating to Misconduct and Invalid Scores described above, and other disciplinary-related information), with third parties, including with your school, any score recipient, college, higher education institution or agency, scholarship organization, potential score recipient, government agency in the United States or abroad, parents, legal guardians, or law enforcement. College Board may also share such information with third parties that have a legitimate reason for knowing the information or who may be able to assist College Board in its investigation or who may be conducting their own investigation. College Board may also respond to inquiries from any institution to whom you submitted a score. If you publicize any review, investigation or decision of College Board, College Board may make any and all details of such matter public.
Section 7. Privacy

Privacy Policies. College Board recognizes the importance of protecting your privacy. Our privacy policies located at collegeboard.org/privacy-center (“Privacy Policies”) are part of these Terms and Conditions. You consent to College Board collection, use, and disclosure of your personally identifiable information described in the Privacy Policies and in these Terms and Conditions. College Board may update its Privacy Policies from time to time and they are subject to change up to one week prior to your test date and any subsequent test dates for which you register. You are required to review the Privacy Policies located at collegeboard.org/privacy-center prior to each test administration.

a) Student Search Service.

If you decide to opt-in to our voluntary Student Search Service (“Search”), then:

- We will share information about you that you provide to College Board (including without limitation your personally identifiable information, score ranges, questionnaire responses, and information you provide on College Board college planning website BigFuture™) with participating accredited colleges, universities, nonprofit scholarship programs, and nonprofit educational organizations (“Education Organizations”). We will do so in accordance with studentsearch.collegeboard.org/about-your-data.

- Education Organizations will use this information to send you email and postal mail informing you about their educational, financial aid, and scholarship opportunities. Being contacted by Education Organizations doesn’t mean you have been admitted. You must submit an application to be considered for admission.

- Education Organizations pay a license fee to College Board to license (use) your information. College Board uses these license fees to help support its mission-driven work. Students do not pay a fee for Search.

- Education Organizations may only use your information for the purpose of sending you information about their opportunities. They (i) may not share your information with others except to their contractors such as direct mail service providers, and (ii) may only keep your information for a limited time period.

- Opt-out: You can opt-out of Search at any time at studentsearch.collegeboard.org/opt-out or by contacting us at SearchCustomerService@collegeboard.org or 866-825-8051.

b) Scholarship Programs. College Board automatically sends your scores and personally identifiable information to the U.S. government and state sponsored or administered scholarship and recognition programs described below. This information is used by such programs to consider your eligibility for a scholarship or recognition program. If your mailing address or high school is in one of the states listed below, this information will be automatically sent by College Board to such programs.
- Opt-out: You can opt out by notifying College Board, in writing, no more than 15 days after the test date, at College Board SAT Program, Attention: Confidentiality, P.O. Box 025505, Miami, FL 33102.

  The programs are:

  - U.S. Presidential Scholars Program for test takers in all states, the District of Columbia, U.S. territories, and Puerto Rico, and for U.S. citizens abroad.

  - State scholarship and recognition programs including those in the following states: Alaska, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

  - Participating scholarship and recognition programs may change at any time and these Terms and Conditions may not reflect the most current list of participants and states.

  c) Educational Reporting.

  - We send your scores and other information you provide during testing to your school and district. In addition, your scores may be sent to your state for educational, diagnostic and/or reporting purposes. (Home schooled students’ scores won’t be shared with the school that administers the test).

  - When you request that we send your scores to colleges or other organizations as designated by you on your answer sheet and/or via your College Board account, we send your scores and other information you provide during testing to those colleges and organizations in accordance with sat.org/scores.

Section 8. Miscellaneous

a) If you want to voluntarily cancel your scores, your request must be received by the fourth weekday after a test administration in accordance with sat.org/cancel-scores. Once you submit your request to cancel scores, your scores cannot be reinstated and are not reported to you or your designated institutions (e.g., colleges).

b) In certain cases, including where there is unexpected volume in a particular area or for test security or safety reasons, College Board reserves the right to move you to a different location or to a subsequent test administration.

c) In the event of a test security related concern, public health threat, natural disaster, terrorist act, civil unrest, or other unexpected events or circumstances, College Board may cancel testing for all or a specific group of test takers. When this occurs, College Board will notify you in advance if feasible. We will communicate test cancellations and, when feasible, alternative test dates for affected test takers.

d) To ensure the integrity of the SAT, for security reasons, or for other reasons in our sole discretion, College Board reserves the right to bar any individual or group of individuals from registering for and/or taking any College Board assessment.

e) If College Board becomes aware that you or someone else may be in imminent danger, including a determination based on the content of your essay, we reserve the right to contact the appropriate individuals or agencies, including your parents, guardians, high school, or law enforcement agencies.
We might also provide the relevant essay or other content, along with any personal information, to those contacted.

f) College Board or its designee may use methods to capture images, video, or audio at any or all test centers to help ensure test security. The resulting images or recordings, which may permit College Board to identify specific individuals, may be collected, stored, reviewed, and used for the purposes of (1) identifying, collecting evidence of, and/or investigating possible SAT test security incidents; (2) enhancing SAT test security. These images and/or recordings are maintained following the test administration for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes specified. Thereafter, the images and recordings are securely destroyed. College Board will not use or disclose such information except as described above, as requested by law enforcement, and/or as reasonably necessary to protect the rights and property of College Board or third parties.

g) College Board occasionally pretests new questions to determine if they should be included in a future SAT test. These questions may appear in any of the test sections, and testing time will be appropriately extended so you have time to answer them. They will not be included in computing your scores. Scored test items (questions) and entire test forms may be used in more than one test administration.

h) After the SAT, we may send you an email invitation requesting you to participate in a test experience survey or to answer sample test questions. If you provide us with an email address, you may receive an invitation via email. Participation is optional and will not affect your scores.

i) College Board takes steps to ensure that registration records are properly handled and processed, and that answer sheets are properly handled and scored. In the unlikely event of a problem with shipping or processing registration materials, answer sheets, or score reports, or with scoring the test, or score reporting, College Board will correct the error, if possible, and may schedule a makeup test for impacted test takers, or will provide a refund of the test fee. These are your sole remedies in relation to such issues. College Board has sole discretion in determining whether to score lost answer sheets that are eventually recovered.

j) All personal property brought into the test center, such as purses, bags, backpacks, mobile phones, and calculators and other electronic devices, may be subject to search at the discretion of College Board, ETS, and testing staff. Searches may include the use of tools, such as metal detecting wands used on individuals and personal property or other methods, that detect prohibited devices and/or their use. College Board, ETS, and testing staff may confiscate and retain for a reasonable period of time any personal property suspected of having been used, or capable of being used, in violation of our test security and fairness policies, for further investigation.

k) College Board and the test center will not be responsible for personal property, including prohibited items, brought to the test center on test day that becomes lost, stolen, or damaged.

l) Each College Board contractor is a third-party beneficiary and is entitled to the rights and benefits under this Agreement and may enforce the provisions of this Agreement as if it were a party to this Agreement.

Section 9. Policies and Requirements

a) All College Board policies and requirements (i) referenced in these Terms and Conditions and (ii) relating to registering for the SAT located at sat.org/register, taking the test located at sat.org/taking-test, and scores located at sat.org/scores, are part of these Terms and Conditions.

b) Keeping Scores on File Your test scores, and personal information that you provide to College Board become part of your student record and are kept indefinitely, unless you tested before entering the ninth grade. To request removal of a permanent College Board student record, call Customer Service or write to the College Board, Attention Customer Service.

c) College Board may update its policies and requirements from time to time and they are subject to change up to one week prior to your test date and any subsequent test dates you register for. You are required to review these prior to each test administration.

Section 10. Intellectual Property Rights

a) All College Board tests, test-related documents and materials, and test preparation materials are copyrighted works owned by College Board and protected by the laws of the United States and other countries.

b) College Board owns all answers and answer documents you submit including all essay responses, and these may be used by College Board for any purpose, subject to College Board Privacy Policies located at collegeboard.org/privacy-center and these Terms and Conditions.

Section 11. ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES

a) General Arbitration Rules (“General Arbitration Rules”)

- All disputes between you and College Board and/or any or all of its contractors that relate in any way to registering for or taking the SAT, including but not limited to requesting or receiving test accommodations, score reporting, the use of your data, test security issues, or the Score Validity Process, but excluding all claims that a party violated the intellectual property rights of the other party, shall exclusively be resolved by a single arbitrator through binding, individual arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) under the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules in effect at the time a request for arbitration is filed with the AAA. Copies of the AAA Rules can be located at adr.org.

- Disputes relating to the Score Validity Process (defined in the “Invalid Scores” section above) are subject to both these General Arbitration Rules and the Supplemental Arbitration Rules defined below. If there is a conflict between the General Arbitration Rules and the Supplemental Arbitration Rules, the Supplemental Arbitration Rules will control.

- The proceedings should be conducted at a location which is reasonably convenient to both parties with due consideration of their ability to travel and other pertinent circumstances. If the parties are unable to agree on a location, the parties agree that the proceedings will be conducted through documentary submissions and/or via a video or telephonic call or, in the event that face-to-face proceedings are agreed to by the parties or required by the arbitrator, at a location that is reasonably convenient to both parties in accordance with the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules.

- The parties agree that the Federal Arbitration Act (“FAA”) 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. governs this provision, and it is the intent of the parties that the FAA shall preempt all State laws to the fullest extent permitted by law.

- No arbitration may be maintained as a class or collective action, and the arbitrator shall not have the authority to combine or aggregate the disputes of more than one individual, conduct any class or collective proceeding, make any class or collective award, or make an award to any person or entity not a party to the arbitration, without the express written consent of College Board.

- By agreeing to arbitration in accordance with this section, you are waiving your right to have your dispute heard by a judge or jury except as set forth below.
- Each party will be responsible for its own fees and expenses and any legal fees incurred in connection with the arbitration except that College Board will pay your AAA filing fee. This does not preclude the arbitrator from granting relief in accordance with AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules.

b) Supplemental Arbitration Rules for the Score Validity Process (“Supplemental Arbitration Rules”)

- If you receive a notice from us that your scores are subject to the Score Validity Process, you may be provided with the option to choose arbitration. In addition to the General Arbitration Rules, the below rules will apply.
- This arbitration will be conducted as a documents-only arbitration (i.e., there will be no in-person or telephone hearing) unless otherwise agreed by the parties or required by the arbitrator.
- The sole issue for the arbitrator to decide is whether College Board acted in good faith and followed the Score Validity Process.
- This arbitration will be based only on (i) the documents you submitted to College Board pursuant to the Score Validity Process and (ii) College Board documents unless otherwise agreed by the parties or required by the arbitrator.
- If the arbitrator finds that College Board did not act in good faith in deciding to cancel your scores, your scores will not be canceled (or they will be reinstated, if applicable).
- All other disputes with College Board will be resolved solely by the General Arbitration Rules in (a) above.

c) Notwithstanding the foregoing arbitration provisions in sections (a) and (b) above, either party may take a claim to small claims court instead of arbitration if the party’s claim is within the jurisdiction of the small claims court, as permitted in the AAA Rules. If either party institutes an action in small claims court, you and College Board agree to accept the findings of the small claims court as a final resolution of the parties’ dispute and not to appeal the small claims court’s decision or pursue any other claim (including a claim asserted in arbitration) relating to that dispute.

Section 12. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT FINALLY DETERMINED TO BE PROHIBITED BY LAW, COLLEGE BOARD AND ITS AGENTS AND CONTRACTORS’ TOTAL LIABILITY TO YOU OR ANYONE CLAIMING BY OR THROUGH YOU OR ON YOUR BEHALF, FOR ANY CLAIMS, LOSSES, COSTS, OR DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RESULTING FROM OR IN ANY WAY RELATED TO COLLEGE BOARD, OR ANY TEST ADMINISTRATION BY COLLEGE BOARD, FROM ANY CAUSE, SHALL NOT EXCEED THE TEST REGISTRATION FEES YOU PAID TO COLLEGE BOARD OR $100.00, WHICHERVER IS GREATER. IN ADDITION, COLLEGE BOARD WILL NOT BE LIABLE IN ANY EVENT FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, OR SPECIAL DAMAGES.
Section 13. Severability

If any provision or part of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the remaining provision will nevertheless continue in full force without being impaired or invalidated in any way and to the extent possible, the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision shall be modified so that it is valid, legal, and enforceable and, to the fullest extent, reflects the intention of the parties.

Section 14. Restricted Registrations

College Board, along with our service providers overseas, is subject to U.S. economic sanctions, laws, and regulations and is prohibited from providing testing services to, or accepting registrations from, persons residing in certain areas or designated by the U.S. government as Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (collectively, “Sanctioned Persons”), unless specifically licensed or otherwise authorized by the U.S. government. If a Sanctioned Person attempts to register despite U.S. sanctions that prohibit College Board from doing business with such Sanctioned Person, College Board or a U.S. financial institution may block the registration or payments submitted by or for such Sanctioned Persons. If payment is not blocked, College Board is required to cancel the registration and may not be able to refund the payment. Please contact SAT Customer Service at 866-756-7346 (+1-212-713-7789 internationally) or the website of the U.S. Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) to obtain the current list of sanctioned programs and Sanctioned Persons.

Section 15. Accessibility of These Terms and Conditions

If you have difficulty accessing these Terms and Conditions, including our policies and requirements, please contact College Board Customer Service at 866-756-7346 (+1-212-713-7789 internationally) or SAT.org/contacts in advance of registering or taking the SAT. We will be happy to provide these Terms and Conditions in an alternative format or assist you in some other manner as reasonably necessary to enable you to access these Terms and Conditions.
